ADDITIONAL FUNERAL DIRECTOR PRODUCTS AND SERVICES
This funeral director may be able to supply a range of optional, additional products and services, or to arrange (on your behalf) for a third party to supply them. Examples include:
Additional mileage (price per mile)		Not offered
Additional transfers of the deceased person's body (e.g. to their home, to a place of worship etc.) (price per transfer)		£ 225
Collection and delivery of ashes		£ 1
Embalming		£ 250
Funeral officiant (e.g. celebrant, minister of religion etc.)		Prices on request
The funeral director can give you a full list of what they can supply. They are likely to charge for these additional products and services, so you may choose to take care of some arrangements without their involvement, or you can use a different supplier.

1 This fee (which is sometimes called the interment fee) is the charge made for digging and closing a new grave, or for re-opening and closing an existing grave.

As from September 2021, the Government requires all funeral directors to produce and display some standardised pricing and disclosure of other information in a strict format which they consider will enable comparison to be made between different companies. Because of the bespoke nature of each funeral and the variation in fees according to individual choices made, we would advise that a full itemised estimate is obtained from any company in order to directly compare prices. R C Smallbone have always been transparent about pricing and all our clients are given a written estimate of expected costs for a particular funeral.

Standard terms of business

When a funeral arrangement has been made, you will be given a written estimate of all the charges incurred by the service you have requested. Where the total estimated account is deemed excessive you may be asked to make an interim payment.

We ask for this estimate to be signed as consent that you accept the charges and will be liable for payment of the account when submitted. This is usually 7-10 days after the funeral. If wished, the account may be forwarded to your solicitor.

We reserve the right to add interest to all outstanding accounts at 2% per month on accounts that remain unpaid after 60 days and any legal and court costs incurred due to non-payment.
